Each and every fresh issue of shares for a consideration in cash shall, unless the Shareholders in general meeting approve otherwise, be made in such a manner so as to preserve, as nearly as possible, the existing proportion between the Shareholders. Any of the Shares not subscribed for by the existing Shareholders may be offered for subscription to the general public under the same or other conditions which however cannot be more favourable to the public than an offer made to the existing Shareholders.

Provided that no fresh issue of shares shall be made unless the existing shares have been fully paid up;

Provided further that the Company shall not issue Shares in such a way that would dilute a substantial interest without prior approval of the shareholders in a General Meeting;

2.2 Article 2.1 shall not apply to a particular allotment of Shares if there are, or are to be wholly paid up otherwise than in cash, or partly paid up otherwise than in cash to the extent of the non-cash component of the consideration.

2.3 Subject to the provisions of the Act and any relevant resolution of the Company, all Shares from time to time unissued shall be at the disposal of the Board of Directors and they may offer, allot, grant options over or otherwise dispose of them to such persons, at such times and on such terms as they think proper.

- 2.4 Pursuant to and in accordance with the Act, the Board of Directors shall be generally authorised and empowered to exercise, during the Prescribed Period (as defined herein), all the powers of the Company to allot wholly for cash Shares up to an aggregate nominal amount equal to the Prescribed Amount (as defined herein). In the exercise by the Board of Directors of the authorisation and power granted to them in terms of this Article 2, the provisions of Article 2.1 hereof shall not apply.
- 2.5 Unless the Shareholders approve in a general meeting, or as otherwise permitted under the Capital Markets Rules, no Director shall participate in an issue of Shares made solely to employees pursuant to terms of an employee share scheme which the Company may from time to time apply.
- 2.6 For purposes of this Article:
'Prescribed Period' means, in the first instance, the period expiring five (5) years after the date of the adoption of the Articles and shall include any other period (not exceeding five (5) years on any occasion) for which the authority conferred by this Article 2 is renewed or extended by ordinary resolution stating the Prescribed Amount for such period;
'Prescribed Amount' means, for the first Prescribed Period, the amount of authorised share capital less the amount of the issued share capital of the Company at that time and for any other Prescribed Period, shall be the amount stated in the relevant ordinary resolution.
- 2.7 Where an application for admission to Prospects is made in respect of any particular class of shares:
- (i) If none of the shares of that class are already admitted, the application must relate to all shares of that class, issued or proposed to be issued; and
 - (ii) If some of the shares of that class have already been admitted, the application must relate to all further shares of the class, issued or proposed to be issued.
- Provided that admission shall be sought for all further issues of a class of shares already admitted prior to the allotment of a new issue.
- 2.8 The Company shall ensure that all facilities and information necessary for holders of shares admitted to Prospects to exercise their rights are available in Malta, and shall ensure that the integrity and authenticity of the data is preserved.
- 2.9 The Directors may, if they deem fit cause any of the Shares or Debt Securities of the Company, irrespective of the class, whether issued or to be issued pursuant to these Articles, to be quoted and listed on the Exchange, or to be admitted to Prospects. All listed or admitted Shares or Debt Securities of the Company shall be freely transferable.
- 2.10 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, any preference shares may, with the sanction of an Ordinary resolution of Members, be issued on the terms that they are, or at the option of the Company are liable, to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as the Members, before the issue, may by Ordinary resolution determine.
- 2.11 The rights attached to any class of Shares, as is currently in force, or other classes of Shares that may be created in the future (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the Shares of that class) may, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of the majority of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of an Extraordinary resolution passed at a separate General Meeting of the holders of the Shares of that class to every such General Meeting.

- 2.12 The Company may exercise the power of paying commissions or of making discounts or allowances provided it complies with the requirements of the Companies Act. Such commissions may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of Shares, whether partly or fully paid-up, or a combination of both.
- 2.13 In respect of a Share held jointly by several persons, the joint holders may nominate one of them as their representative and his name will be entered in the Register of Members. Such person shall for all intents and purposes be deemed, vis-a-vis the Company, to be the registered holder of the Shares so held in the absence of such nomination, and until such nomination is made, the person first named on the Register of Members in respect of such Shares shall for all intents and purposes be deemed to be the registered holder of the Shares so held.

- 2.15 Subject to the provisions of this article and unless the Members in General Meeting approve by means of an Ordinary resolution, on a fresh issue of Shares of each class, such shares shall be offered in the first place to the members holding Shares of that class, as closely as possible in the same proportion as the number of shares of that class already held by them respectively. The offer shall be made by notice in writing specifying the number of Shares offered and their value and stating a time, being not less than twenty-eight (28) days within which the offer, if not accepted, shall be deemed to have been declined.
- 2.16 Any Shares not taken up by a Member to whom they were initially offered shall then be offered as aforesaid to the other Members of that class who shall have taken up their whole offer and, if the requests for Shares from such other Members shall exceed the number of Shares on offer and not taken up, they shall be allotted as closely as possible in proportion to the number of Shares held by them respectively prior to the said fresh issue of Shares. Any remaining Shares shall then be offered as aforesaid to the Members of the other class of Shares as closely as possible in proportion to the number of Shares held by them respectively. If the requests for Shares from such Members shall exceed the number of Shares on offer and not taken up, they shall be allotted as closely as possible in proportion to the number of Shares held by them respectively prior to the said fresh issue of Shares. Any remaining Shares may then be offered to non-Members on terms and conditions which shall not be more favourable than the offer made to the Members.
- 2.17 Whenever there are preference Shares in issue, the holders thereof shall have the same rights as holders of ordinary Shares in receiving notices, reports, balance sheets and in attending General Meetings.
- 2.18 Without prejudice to any rights that may be granted to persons holding preference Shares in the relative terms of issue, such persons shall not, as holders of preference Shares, have the right to vote at General Meetings, except on a resolution for the purpose of:

- (i) reducing the capital of the Company; or
 - (ii) winding up the Company; or
 - (iii) any proposal submitted to the meeting which directly affects their rights and privileges; or
 - (iv) affecting the dividend on preference shares when the dividend on their Shares is in arrears for more than six (6) months.
- 2.20 Unless otherwise provided in the terms of issue of preference Shares, on any resolution where, in terms of the provisions of sub-clause 2.14 of this Article, Members holding preference Shares are entitled to vote, each preference Share shall entitle its holder to one (1) vote.

4.5 At the expiration of the said fourteen (14) days, the Directors shall allocate the said Shares to or among the Member/s who shall have expressed his or their willingness to purchase as aforesaid, and if more than one (1), so far as may be pro rata between them, provided that no Member shall be obliged to take more than the said maximum number of Shares so notified by him as aforesaid.

4.6 If the Directors shall be unable, within one (1) month of the Transfer Notice referred to in article 4.2, to find a purchaser for all or any of the Shares amongst the holders of the existing Shares, the Transferor shall be entitled to sell to the person named in the Transfer Notice at the price specified therein, provided that in such cases the Directors may at their absolute discretion decline to register a transfer and in such event, the Directors shall be bound to redeem these Shares at the fair value as calculated under the provisions of paragraph 4.2 above, and the Shares so redeemed shall be cancelled and the share capital of the Company reduced accordingly.

4.7 (i) Without prejudice to what is contained in the preceding articles, but subject to Article 4.1, in the event that a Transferor/s desire/s to sell all, but not part of, its/their Shares in the Company which together represent more than fifty percent (50%) of the nominal value of such Shares, to a third party (the "Third Party"), the Transferor/s shall be entitled (but not obliged to), at any time prior to the said sale, to give notice to all, but not some, of the other Member/s of the Company, requiring them to participate in such sale (the "Drag Along Right"), on the same terms and conditions (including the purchase price) agreed to with the Third Party with respect to the sale of the Shares held by the Transferor/s. Such notice (the "Drag Along Notice") shall set forth the principal terms and conditions so agreed by the Transferor/s with the Third Party (including the purchase price). The Transferor shall also serve a copy of the Drag Along Notice to the Board of Directors.

(ii) Upon the Transferor/s serving a Drag Along Notice unto the other Member/s of the Company, the said Member/s shall, without prejudice to the other provisions of this article 4.7, be bound and obligated to, by not later than seven (7) days from the date of service of the Drag Along Notice, sell all of their shares to the Third Party, by signing any share transfer form and any and all other documents and forms as shall be required to give effect to such sale, on the terms and conditions specified in the Drag Along Notice.

(iii) The Member/s of the Company against which a Drag Along Notice has been served, may acting jointly (but not severally), by serving notice unto the Board of Directors (the "Fair Valuation Notice") within a period of seven (7) days from the date of service of the Drag Along Notice, request the Board of Directors to request an independent auditor to determine the fair value of the shares to be transferred to the Third Party.

(iv) Upon the Board of Directors receiving a Fair Valuation Notice in terms of paragraph (iii) above, the Board of Directors shall, within a period of seven (7) days from the date of service of a Fair Valuation Notice, request the independent auditor to determine the fair value of the Shares. For the avoidance of doubt, the fair valuation of the Shares as determined by the auditor appointed by the Board of Directors shall be conclusive evidence of the fair value of said shares.

(v) Upon receiving the report drawn up by the auditor, the Board of Directors shall forthwith send a copy of the said report determining the fair value of the shares to all Members of the Company. If the fair value of the Shares as determined by the auditors is equal or lower to the price per shares proposed in the Drag Along Notice, the Member/s of the Company which have been served with a Drag Along Notice shall be obliged to participate in the sale on the terms and conditions agreed by the Transferor/s with the Third Party as set forth in the Drag Along Notice and shall immediately sign any share transfer form and any and all other documents and forms as shall be required to give effect to the sale of the Shares. Provided that if the fair value of the Shares as determined by the auditor is higher by ten percent (10%) than the price per Share proposed in the Drag Along Notice, the Member/s of the Company which have been served with a Drag Along Notice shall not be obliged to participate with the Transferor/s in the sale and shall therefore have the right to refuse to sell their Shares to the Third Party.

- 4.8 If, at any time, a Member of the Company has any of its Shares owned and/or held by a person who is not a Permitted Holder so as to result in a change in control over the Member, the other members of the Company shall have the right to call upon such Member (the "Defaulting Member") to transfer to them all the Shares held by the Defaulting Member in the Company at their fair market value determined in accordance with Article 4.3 and utilising the procedures referred to in Article 4.4 for the transfer of Shares to Members of the Company.

The call option in terms of this clause shall remain valid up to the date of liquidation of the Company, and shall be exercised by notice in writing to the Defaulting Member.

All Members of the Company irrevocably bind themselves and undertake to promptly transfer their respective shares to the other Members of the Company if any of them becomes a Defaulting Member at any time in the future. The execution of these Memorandum and Articles of Association shall constitute irrevocable proxies issued by all the members subscribing to these Memorandum and Articles of Association as security for their undertakings in this Article and in favour of the other Members of the Company enabling such other Members to sign all documents on behalf of the Defaulting Member as may be necessary to give effect to the transfer of shares by such Defaulting Member in accordance with this Article 4.8.

If a Member becomes a Defaulting Member, the shares held by such Defaulting Member shall confer no voting rights with effect from the date when the Defaulting Member is notified of the default by the other Members until such time as the shares are transferred to the other members of the Company.

It shall be a condition for the registration of any such transfer by the Company that (i) the Company be notified of the intention of the Member to make any such transfer at least thirty (30) days in advance thereof; (ii) that the Member produces evidence to the reasonable satisfaction of the Company and as may reasonably be requested by the Company that the proposed transferee is a company forming part of the group of the Member; (iii) that the Member and the transferee give such declarations and undertakings to enter into such deeds or agreements with the Company or do such other acts as may reasonably be required by the Company (whether before or after the transfer) to ensure that such shares are re-transferred to the Member if the transferee ceases to be a group company of the Member or if the transferee is likely to become bankrupt or insolvent or subject to circumstances which can lead to bankruptcy or insolvency under applicable law, as aforesaid. For the purposes of this Article 4.9, the term "group" shall have the meaning assigned to it in terms of the Companies Act,

4.12 The Transferor shall complete and execute transfers of the said Shares in accordance with the allocation by the Directors and shall surrender to the Company his Shares certificate. The Directors may also decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the Shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the Transferor to make the transfer.
